

Ways to Volunteer

Day-of Volunteering

- Help us ensure our competitions and events run smoothly
- Tasks may vary – set-up/tear-down, timing/scoring/measuring, cheering athletes, etc.
- Commitment – as few as one shift, as many as you would like!
- Open opportunities can be found here

Group Volunteering

- Come out as a group to volunteer together!
 - o School groups
 - o Companies/Professional groups
 - o Service groups
 - o Sports teams
 - o Religious groups
 - o Families and Friend groups (see age requirements on volunteer resources webpage)
 - o Any group of 2 or more individuals!
- Help us ensure our competitions and events run smoothly
- Tasks may vary – set-up/tear-down, timing/scoring/measuring, cheering athletes, etc.
- Commitment – as few as one shift, as many as you would like!
- Open opportunities can be found here

Coaching

- Train and encourage SOAZ athletes as they prepare for competition
- Commitment – may vary by sport
- Training and background check clearance required (Class A)
- Contact Heather@SpecialOlympicsArizona.org to learn more

Project Based Volunteering

- Have a special skill you are interested in sharing with us?
- Interested in helping with administrative tasks or other projects?
- Contact Heather@SpecialOlympicsArizona.org to see what opportunities are available

Class A Volunteers

- Recurring volunteers
- Can help with merchandise sales, coaching athletes, chaperoning, and more
- Online Training and background check clearance required

Games Management Team (GMTs)

- Volunteer leaders
- Assist in the planning and execution of larger competitions
- Requires Class A clearance and previous volunteer experience